

I'd like to firstly wish a very Happy Eid to all of our families who are celebrating today! I hope everyone will come and join our celebration after school on Tuesday 19th June.

Roehampton Reads

You can still buy tickets for the festival on Saturday 23rd June - they are only £3 and can be bought from the school office. If you have paid, then please come along to school from 10.30 on the day - you don't need a paper ticket, just turn up and we'll have all the names on a list. If any parents would like to help on the day, please speak to Mr Cooper.

Book Fair

We have books for sale in the KS2 playground all next week and also on Saturday, at Roehampton Reads. Come along and buy a book - the more we sell, the more books we can buy for the school.

Y6 trip to Arvon

A group of children from Y6 spent a week at a writing residential in Devon. They were joined by Polly Ho Yen (author of Boy in the Tower) and Joseph Coelho (a poet who grew up in Roehampton). It was a fantastic week and a real 'once in a lifetime' experience for the children who took part. Thank you to Mr Cooper and Miss Robertson for taking the children.

Y4 Writers Day

Some children from Y4 were selected to take part in a writers' day today. Heathmere hosted the event and welcomed children and staff from other schools. Neal Zetter (our Poet in Residence) led the day which culminated in children writing their own poems!

School Improvement

We have started to review the curriculum for next year, looking at which topics and texts we want to keep and which ones we think could be better.
