

Want to improve your learning? Try these websites at home!

Useful maths websites for your child to use at home:

- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/education> - This website has a range of different activities and games for Key Stages One and Two. Your child can also read about and revise what they have learned in class. It can also be used on tablets.
- www.topmarks.co.uk – This is a great site for playing maths games to practise what your child has learned in class.
- www.teachingtables.co.uk – A fantastic website for practising your times tables at home. You can play games as well as download worksheets and puzzles to help you to learn your times tables.
- <http://resources.woodlands-junior.kent.sch.uk/maths/> - This school website has lots of useful links to maths activities online. They are sorted into categories so that it is really easy to find what you want to practise.
- <http://www.mathsisfun.com/> - This website explains lots of different maths concepts very clearly. It is very easy to use and you can learn about lots of different things and then test your learning by playing games and quizzes.

Useful English websites for your child to use at home:

- <http://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/> - You can simply use your email address to set up a free account to access hundreds of free e-books online. You can either read the books on-screen or listen to the story being read aloud.
- <http://primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/literacy/index.htm> - This website is packed with a range of different activities to support spellings, grammar, punctuation and writing.
- <http://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/en/> - A range of worthwhile interactive games are available on this website.
- <http://www.topmarks.co.uk/> - Click on the 'Learning Games' tab at the top to find some great Literacy resources.
- <http://www.letters-and-sounds.com/> - This great website could be used by adults to find ideas to support phonics/reading activities at home. Word cards can be printed for your child to practice their reading and spelling at home.
- <http://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/> - A great website to learn your phonics while you are playing a game!